First Friday – Healing Mass - Exposition & Adoration – 2nd Feb 2018

The first monthly Healing Mass for 2018 will be held this Friday 2nd February. Come and experience the healing that this Mass offers. Mass commences at 8.00am and is followed by Exposition until 3.00pm. The intentions of this devotion are to pray for the needs of our Parish and for the needs of the Church as a whole.

A roster has been placed in the foyer for those able to attend. Parishioners are requested to nominate times they can attend so that we can be sure that someone is present throughout the period of adoration.

St Aloysius Parish 2018 Lenten Reflections

This Parish Group will meet on each of six Thursday evenings from 15 FEBRUARY TO 22 MARCH from 7.15 pm to 8.30pm in the Parish Centre. We are called to a deeply-shared humanity. Listening to why the seemingly catastrophic death of Jesus was in fact a jubilant beginning, we will reflect on ways we can help transform and heal our broken Church in a lasting way, beginning with our own Lenten journey.

Pope Francis: The Church is the Face of Hope in tumultuous times. I am pleased to meet you at the end of the Plenary Session of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith...

During this Plenary Session, you have also studied some sensitive issues regarding the accompaniment of terminally ill patients. In this regard, the process of secularization, by rendering absolute the concepts of self-determination and autonomy, has led to the growth of the demand for euthanasia in many countries as an ideological affirmation of man's will to power over life... It is clear that where life is valued not for its dignity, but for its efficiency and productivity, all this becomes possible. In this scenario, it must be reiterated that human life, from conception to its natural end, has a dignity that makes it intangible.

Pain, suffering, the meaning of life and death are realities that contemporary mentality struggles to face with a look of hope. And yet, without a trustworthy hope to help him confront pain and death, man cannot live well and maintain a confident perspective before his future. This is one of the services that the Church is called to make to contemporary man. (Taken from speech to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith)

Please Continue to Pray for David Cornish, Mary Barnett, Ines Janca, Virginia O'Shannassy (Pam Meehan's cousin) and Sandra (sister of Rita de Faria).
