Avis Naismith – Thank You

Avis, who has been a parishioner since 1971, has decided to retire as a Minister of Holy Communion and from the counting roster. Avis and Max were married at St Aloysius in 1971. Their three children and four grandchildren have all been baptised here. Her daughter Rebecca and son Benjamin were altar servers for several years. Rebecca was married at St Aloysius in 2000.

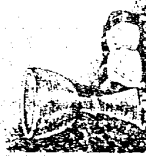

Avis's involvement in the Parish has been 'strong and constant'. She was a catechist in the local government schools and involved with the children's liturgy for several years.

For at least 20 years she has been a Communion Minister, Reader and on the counting roster. As a Communion Minister she was involved in taking Communion to the local nursing homes and the Shenton Park Hospice. Avis has always been supported by Max who has been the 'behind the scenes counter' for many years.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Avis for all she has done, as well as to Max, Rebecca, Benjamin and all the family. We wish them well for the future. We pray that God's abundant blessings be upon them.
