

Prayers of the Faithful. 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time 27th October '18.

Priest : My dear friends, we live in the fulness of time and Christ himself is God's covenant with men. Let us pray to the Father, knowing that those who put their trust in him will never be disappointed.

Reader: For the holy people of God , we ask obedience to the covenant of Christ. May Pope Francis guide us with love and the great wisdom bestowed on him.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: Help us to be faithful even when we are filled with doubt , God will provide the answers we are seeking.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We pray for refugees around the world and especially the families held in intolerable hardship whilst hoping for a new life in Australia. May their prayers be answered and their families embrace a joyful new life.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: For the victims of abuse in institutional care, your trauma will never be forgotten. Together we pray for those who suffered in silence and were robbed of their childhood.....
Lord hear us.....

Reader: For those who are gravely ill, those who have died recently and those whose anniversaries occur at this time we pray for their peace in the loving arms of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We bow our heads and ask God to listen to our special needs in our hearts.....

Lord hear us.....

* PRAYER ON THE NEXT PAGE AND THEN: PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER *

Priest: Almighty God, hear our prayers and let everyone know that you alone are God, that Jesus Christ is your Son and we are your people. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

AMEN.

On this Catholic Mission Sunday, we pray for the missionaries working in communities around the world providing care and hope to the forgotten people and the most in need. Give them strength and courage as they work tirelessly to combat the effects of poverty- may we stand with them. Lord hear us...
