

Prayers of the Faithful. 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time 17th Nov'2018.

Priest : My dear friends, God has bought us to life with Christ and shared with us the riches of his Spirit. Let us pray to him with confidence, knowing that he is faithful.

Reader: When Christians suffer persecution may they draw strength and courage from the Spirit who lives within them and receive from him the power of the risen Christ.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We pray for the leaders and members of the Church in Australia. May they follow the example of our Lord Jesus and be committed to helping those who are poor, homeless and suffering.....
Lord hear us.....

Reader: The Archbishop's Christmas Appeal for Lifeline 2018 is our opportunity to make a difference, reaching out with financial support to those who need it most. May our Saint Aloysius community be generous ensuring Christmas is a time of love and joy for all people.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We pray for those who have died recently, especially those who are not surrounded by a loving family.... May they be embraced in God's loving arms.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: Dear Lord, listen to our special needs in our hearts.....
Lord hear us.....

Reader: Jesus, we thank you for the inspiration of holding a Plenary Council and ask that you infuse our hearts with hope for an Australian church which reflects your love to all those living in this land.
Lord hear us

WE RECITE THE PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER TOGETHER.....

Priest: Almighty God, you have filled our lives with hope and meaning. Grant that we may always live as your sons and daughters, grow into the maturity of Christ and one day see you face to face. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

AMEN.
