

Prayers of the Faithful.. 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time. 17.2.19

Priest : My dear friends, Christ has said to us."Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find". Let us now pray to God with complete faith in the word of our Lord.

Reader: We pray for the leaders of our Church, may they offer support, love and generosity to those who suffer injustice and poverty throughout the world.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We pray for individuals and minority groups forced to exist on the fringes of society, that they may be made welcome and embraced by the broader community.
Lord hear us...

Reader: For teachers and students, may school be welcoming, providing stimulation and a thirst for knowledge in a harmonious and inclusive environment.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: For those who are gravely ill, those who have died recently and those whose anniversaries occur at this time we pray for their peace in the loving arms of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Lord hear us.....

Reader: We bow our heads and ask God to listen to our special needs in our hearts.....
Lord hear us.....

READER: LET US NOW TOGETHER SAY THE PLENARY COUNCIL PRAYER.

Priest: Father in Heaven, we trust in you completely. Guide us by your word, protect us by your power and save us by your love.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

AMEN.
