PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Through our worship and our daily living, we strive to follow faithfully the way of Jesus Christ, tell courageously the truth of Jesus Christ and live joyfully the life of Jesus Christ

Second Sunday of Easter - Year C

Divine Mercy Sunday 28th April 2019

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple. It is that God loves us – all of us. And, He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

- A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.
- B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.
- C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

The Divine Mercy devotions (the Image, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy Novena, Divine Mercy Sunday and the hour of mercy (3.00am and 3.00pm)) were instituted by direction of Pope St John-Paul II, and have rapidly spread through the Catholic world as sources of personal spiritual growth.

Prayers of the Faithful 2nd Sunday of Easter 2019

PRIEST:

My dear friends, on the first day of the week our risen Saviour appeared to his disciples and told them not to be afraid. Let us ask God that we may be delivered from fear and share in the joy of Christ's resurrection.

Let us pray for the prayer intention of Pope Francis. We pray for doctors and their humanitarian collaborators in war-torn areas, who risk their lives to save the lives of others..... LORD HEAR US.

Let us pray for the people of Sri Lanka at home and around the world. We remember all families who lost loved ones in the terror attacks on Easter Sunday. May the light of God's hope give them strength and comfort.

LORD HEAR US.

We remember all those who sacrificed their lives for the prosperity and peace of our country. We pray for those who currently serve in our Armed Forces. Keep them free from harm and return them safely to their loved ones. May their endeavours lead to justice and peace.LORD HEAR US.

Let us pray for the continued success of Project Compassion. May we be generous in our support of those in need in Australia and around the world.

LORD HEAR US

We pray for everyone who is seriously ill or injured and for those who care for them. We pray for those who have died this week and for all the faithful departed, especially those whose anniversaries occur about this time, Jael Adonadaga and Varghese..... LORD HEAR US

Let us pray for our own special intentions (pause).....

LORD HEAR US

PRIEST:

God our Father, hear the prayers of those who believe in you. Help us to show that Christ is risen and that He lives in us. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen
